1. STEP ONE

"We admitted we were powerless over the effects of alcohol/addiction that our lives had become unmanageable."

"I know nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out." - Romans 7:18 (NIV)

"But I need something more! For if I know the law but still can't keep it, and if the power of sin within me keeps sabotaging my best intentions, I obviously need help! I realize that I don't have what it takes. I can will it, but I can't do it. I decide to do good, but I don't really do it; I decide not to do bad, but then I do it anyway. My decisions, such as they are, don't result in actions. Something has gone wrong deep within me and gets the better of me every time." - Romans 7:17-20 (MSG)

Understanding the AA 1st Step Worksheet

The AA 1st Step Worksheet is an essential tool for individuals in Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) seeking to confront their addiction and work towards recovery. The first step of the 12-step program emphasizes the importance of admitting powerlessness over alcohol and recognizing that life has become unmanageable due to this addiction. The worksheet serves as a structured guide for individuals to reflect on their experiences and feelings surrounding their alcoholism, setting the stage for a successful recovery journey.

The Purpose of the AA 1st Step Worksheet

The AA 1st Step Worksheet is designed to facilitate self-reflection and introspection. It helps individuals articulate their struggles with alcohol, offering a safe space to confront the realities of their addiction. The primary purposes of the worksheet include:

- Encouragement of Honest Reflection: The worksheet prompts individuals to examine their drinking habits and the consequences that arise from them.
- Identification of Triggers: It aids in identifying personal triggers and situations that lead to excessive drinking.
- Foundation for Recovery: By completing the worksheet, individuals take the first step towards understanding their addiction, which is crucial for long-term recovery.

Components of the AA 1st Step Worksheet

The AA 1st Step Worksheet typically includes several sections that guide individuals through the process of self-examination. Below are the common components found in the worksheet:

1. Admission of Powerlessness

This section encourages individuals to articulate their feelings of powerlessness over alcohol. Here, they may write about moments when they tried to control their drinking but ultimately failed. Questions might include:

- What were some instances when I attempted to quit drinking?
- How did I feel when I realized I couldn't control my alcohol consumption?

2. Acknowledgment of Unmanageability

In this part of the worksheet, individuals reflect on how alcohol has made their lives unmanageable. They can explore various aspects of their lives affected by their drinking, including:

- Relationships with family and friends
- Job performance

- Health issues
- Legal troubles

Questions may include:

- What consequences have I faced due to my drinking?
- How has my life changed negatively because of alcohol?

3. Personal Inventory

The personal inventory section allows individuals to take stock of their feelings, behaviors, and the impact of their addiction on their lives. This may involve listing:

1. Specific behaviors related to drinking.
2. Emotional states before and after drinking.
3. Regrets and missed opportunities due to alcohol.

Reflecting on these aspects can help individuals understand the depth of their addiction and reinforce the need for change.

4. Reflection on Consequences

In this segment, individuals are encouraged to think about the broader consequences of their alcoholism. This may include:

- Impact on family dynamics
- Financial strain caused by drinking
- Negative effects on mental health

Questions to consider might be:

- How have my relationships suffered because of my drinking?
- What financial consequences have I faced due to my addiction?

5. Commitment to Change

Finally, the worksheet encourages individuals to commit to their recovery journey. This section may include affirmations or statements of intention, such as:

- I am ready to seek help and support.
- I commit to working through the 12 steps.
- I will attend AA meetings regularly.

This commitment can serve as a motivating factor, reinforcing the decision to pursue a sober life.
