All In a Day's Work

Name: _____

The Coolest Job in the Country!

Imagine you have been elected President of the United States. What do you think would be the best part of the job? Having your own personal jet? Living in the White House? Having a bowling alley in your house? (Yes, there's a one lane bowling alley in the basement of the White House!)

Being president is not just fun and games. You have real responsibilities. Below is a list of things you would do as president of the United States. Which do you think would be the hardest to do? Which do you think would be the easiest?

Rank the tasks in each list from 1 (hardest) to 3 (easiest). There is no correct answer! Use your own judgment.

Task List A

- 2 ☐ Lead weekly meetings where I ask the leaders of executive branch departments for advice on how to handle the country's most difficult problems.
- 3 ☐ Go to Congress and give my yearly "State of the Union" speech on what's happening in the U.S., which is broadcast live on television.
- 1 ☐ Decide whether to approve or reject a bill Congress has sent me that would cut research funding for a serious disease that not many people have.

Task List B

- 2 ☐ Follow the Constitution and the law even if I disagree with it.
- 1 ☐ Decide whether to send more troops into war knowing that some will die, but it will keep the country safe.
- 3 ☐ Make sure the Department of Homeland Security carries out new safety laws at airports even though I know many travelers will be angry.

Task List C

- 3 ☐ Answer difficult questions from reporters at a press conference where I'm asking Congress to spend a lot of money on space exploration.
- 1 ☐ Try to negotiate an agreement with another country that would lower the taxes each one adds to the sale of items from the other country.
- 2 ☐ Choose a new Supreme Court justice to replace one who is retiring.
