This study guide will provide an in-depth overview of the sorority's history, core values, notable programs, and membership requirements, ensuring that prospective members and interested individuals gain a comprehensive understanding of this esteemed organization.

History of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority

Founding and Early Years

Alpha Kappa Alpha was established on January 15, 1908, by a group of nine visionary women who sought to create a support network for African American female students at Howard University. The founders, known as the "Nine Jewels," are:

1. Ethel Hedgeman Lyle
2. Anna Easter Brown
3. Beulah Burke
4. Lillie E. Burke
5. Margaret Flagg Holmes
6. Mary Louise Smith
7. Lavinia Norman
8. Lucy Diggs Slowe
9. Marjorie Hill

These women aimed to promote academic excellence and provide a platform for community service. The sorority's first public act was organizing a series of lectures and seminars addressing issues relevant to the African American community.

Expansion and Growth

After its inception, Alpha Kappa Alpha quickly expanded beyond Howard University. In 1913, the sorority established its first graduate chapter in New York, paving the way for chapters at various colleges and universities across the nation. By the 1920s, Alpha Kappa Alpha became known for its commitment to civil rights, education, and social justice.
