AP WORLD HISTORY STUDY GUIDE

Unit 1 (1200-1450):

1.1: State Building in China

- China was kind of like the Texas of the ancient world: Don't mess with China.
- In 960, China was split into regional kingdoms again as the power of the Tang Dynasty was gradually waning. Zhao Kuangyin: ruler of one of those kingdoms that took it upon himself to unify most of them all again as the Song Dynasty. (960-1279)
- Song State Structure: 6 departments
  - Personnel, finance, rites, army, justice, and public works.
    - Censorate overseeing these departments. Made sure no one in these bureaucratic departments were behaving bad.
- Confucianism: chief things that helped organize the government.
  - Great continuity in Chinese culture over the years
  - According to Confucian thought, reality is fundamentally hierarchical. Everyone has their place in society, and everyone needs to behave rightly and fulfill their role for everything to go well. (People subject to rulers, etc.)
- Civil service examination:
  - Influenced by Confucian ideals. Major part of the exam was being WELL VERSED in Confucian ideals.
  - A test you had to pass in order to work in the imperial bureaucracy.
  - Led ruling from a heretic form of aristocracy to a new class of scholarly leaders
    - Aristocracy: a form of government in which power is held by the nobility.
- Chinese merchants participated heavily in robust system of long-distance trade across Afro-Eurasia.
  - Increasingly commercialized Chinese society. People began to produce goods not only for local consumption, but also for distant markets. Chinese manufacturing FLOURISHED during this period.
- By the 11th century, China's iron industry was producing 32,000 suits of armor and 16 million iron arrowheads ANNUALLY.
- As commerce grew, role of money also changed. As economy grew, there was not enough precious metal available for minting coins to keep up with the demand.
  - Introduction of paper money
    - Became more popular than minting coins
- Gunpowder
  - Accidental discovery by Daoist alchemists trying to discover elixir of immortality.
  - First application was fireworks and pyrotechnic displays for imperial court, not in a military context.
    - Military context next.
- Influenced Japan
  - Chinese influence was all over Japanese culture.

Chapter 26 Study Guide AP World History is an essential resource for students preparing for the Advanced Placement World History exam. This chapter typically delves into key themes such as imperialism, global interactions, and the socio-political changes that occurred during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Understanding these concepts is crucial for grasping the complexities of world history and the interconnections between different regions.

Overview of Chapter 26

Chapter 26 often covers the period leading up to World War I, focusing on the expansion of empires and the effects of industrialization. It emphasizes how countries engaged in imperialism, the resulting conflicts, and the social changes that accompanied these transformations. The chapter not only highlights the motivations behind imperialism but also examines the responses of colonized nations.

Key Themes

1. Imperialism: The chapter discusses the motivations, methods, and consequences of European imperialism in Africa, Asia, and the Americas.

- Economic interests: Nations sought new markets and raw materials.
- Political motivations: Nationalism fueled competition among European powers.
- Cultural justifications: The belief in the civilizing mission led to the idea of the "white man's burden."

2. Industrialization: The relationship between industrialization and imperialism is a focal point.

- Technological advancements: Innovations in transportation (steamships, railroads) facilitated imperial expansion.
- Military superiority: Industrialized nations had advanced weaponry that gave them an edge over non-industrialized regions.

3. Responses to Imperialism: Colonized people reacted in various ways, leading to a range of outcomes.

- Resistance movements: Some groups fought back against imperial powers.
- Collaboration: Others engaged with colonizers for economic or political gain.
- Nationalist movements: The rise of nationalism in reaction to colonial rule.

Major Empires and Their Impact

This chapter examines several key empires that played significant roles in the era of imperialism.

1. The British Empire

The British Empire was one of the largest and most powerful empires in history, and its impact during this period was profound.

- Extent of Control: The empire stretched across continents, including territories in Africa, Asia, and the Caribbean.
- Economic Exploitation: India became the "jewel in the crown," with significant resources extracted for British profit.
- Cultural Influence: The spread of English language and British cultural practices altered local traditions.

2. The French Empire

The French also had a significant imperial presence, focusing primarily on Africa and Southeast Asia.

- Colonial Policies: France aimed to assimilate colonized peoples into French culture, emphasizing education and language.
- Resistance: Many regions, including Algeria, experienced violent uprisings against French rule.

3. The Russian Empire

The Russian Empire expanded into Central Asia and parts of Eastern Europe.

- Expansionist Policies: Russia sought to control buffer zones and access to warm-water ports.
- Cultural Assimilation: Russia often imposed its culture on diverse ethnic groups within its borders.

Social Changes and Reactions

Empire-building and industrialization led to significant social transformations in both colonizers and colonized societies.

1. Changes in Colonial Societies

- Class Structures: Colonization often resulted in new social hierarchies where Europeans held power over indigenous populations.
- Cultural Exchange: While imperialism imposed foreign cultures, it also led to hybrid cultures emerging in many regions.

2. Nationalism and Independence Movements

As colonized nations sought to assert their identities, nationalism became a powerful force.

- Key Figures: Leaders such as Mohandas Gandhi in India and Jomo Kenyatta in Kenya emerged, advocating for independence.
- Struggles for Independence: Countries undertook various movements, from peaceful protests to armed resistance.

Imperialism and Global Conflict

The chapter also emphasizes how imperialism sowed the seeds for global conflict, particularly World War I.

1. Alliances and Tensions

- Entangling Alliances: Major powers formed alliances, creating a web of commitments that escalated conflicts.
- Imperial Rivalries: Competition for colonies heightened tensions, leading to military conflicts.

2. The Outbreak of World War I

- Immediate Causes: The assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand triggered the war, but underlying imperialist tensions contributed to the volatile political climate.
- Global Implications: World War I marked a turning point, reshaping the global order and leading to the decline of empires.

Key Terms and Concepts

To aid in studying, here is a list of important terms and concepts from Chapter 26:

- Imperialism: The policy of extending a country's power and influence through colonization or military force.
- Colonialism: The practice of acquiring control over a foreign territory and exploiting its resources.
- Nationalism: A political ideology that emphasizes the interests of a particular nation, often in opposition to colonial powers.
- Self-determination: The idea that nations have the right to determine their own political status.
- Social Darwinism: A belief that justified imperialism by suggesting that stronger nations had a right to dominate weaker ones.
