Understanding French Verb Conjugation

French verbs are typically categorized into three groups based on their endings: -ER, -IR, and -RE verbs. Each group follows a specific pattern of conjugation, which changes according to the subject pronoun and the tense (present, past, future, etc.).

1. Verb Groups

- -ER Verbs: The largest group of French verbs, accounting for about 80% of all verbs. Examples include "parler" (to speak) and "aimer" (to love).

- -IR Verbs: This group includes verbs like "finir" (to finish) and "choisir" (to choose). They typically follow a regular pattern.

- -RE Verbs: These verbs, such as "vendre" (to sell) and "attendre" (to wait), have their own unique endings.

2. Conjugation Patterns

French verbs are conjugated based on the subject pronoun. Here are the subject pronouns in French:

- Je (I)

- Tu (You - informal)

- Il/Elle/On (He/She/One)

- Nous (We)

- Vous (You - formal/plural)

- Ils/Elles (They - masculine/feminine)

Each subject pronoun will change the verb ending, and it is vital to memorize these endings for the most common verbs.
