3. Dwarf: Resilient and skilled in crafting, dwarves have a distinct heritage and cannot become mages.

Selecting Your Class

Your class will dictate your abilities and playstyle. The three main classes are:

- Warrior: Strong and durable, warriors excel in melee combat. They can specialize further into either a Knight or a Berserker.
- Rogue: Quick and cunning, rogues are adept at stealth and ranged attacks. They can become Assassins or Duelists.
- Mage: Masters of the arcane, mages can wield powerful spells. They can specialize as Spirit Healers or Elementalists.

Basic Combat Controls

1. Movement: Use WASD to move your character around the battlefield.
2. Attacking: Click on enemies to attack or use hotkeys for abilities.
3. Tactical Pause: Press the spacebar to pause the game. This allows you to issue commands to your

- Warriors: Focus on physical attacks and defensive skills.
- Rogues: Utilize stealth, traps, and ranged attacks.
- Mages: Cast spells with varying effects, from healing to damage.

Each class has a skill tree that you can invest points in as you level up. Prioritize abilities that complement your playstyle and party composition.
