RETIREMENT SPEECH

The Hon. Justice Garry Downes AM

President of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal

Chief Justices, judges, colleagues and friends.

Thank you, Mr Gageler, Mr Catanzariti and Mr Coles for your kind, if flattering, remarks. It is an additional pleasure for me to see you here today because I know each of you very well.

I want to thank everyone here for coming this morning. I must particularly mention Chief Justice Keane, Chief Justice Bathurst, President Allsop, Chief Federal Magistrate Pascoe, Chief Judge Preston, my colleague judges from the Federal Court, judges of appeal and judges of the Supreme Court, judges of the Federal Magistrates Court and judges of the District Court. I must particularly thank Chief Justice Keane and the judges of the Federal Court for permitting the Administrative Appeals Tribunal to use this magnificent court.

Those who have done me the honour of coming today cover virtually the whole of my life. I must mention Dennis Scott from Dawson Waldron Edwards and Nicholls (as I still think of it) who went to Mosman Preparatory School with me. Paul Menzies QC was at Newington College with me. My Colleague Justice Emmett and former Attorney-General Philip Ruddock, were with me in the Faculty of Law at Sydney

Examples of retirement speeches can serve as an excellent source of inspiration for those tasked with delivering a farewell address. Retirement marks a significant transition in life, one filled with mixed emotions of joy, nostalgia, and hope for the future. Crafting a thoughtful retirement speech can honor the retiree's career, celebrate their achievements, and leave a lasting impression on colleagues and friends. In this article, we will explore various examples of retirement speeches, offering tips and ideas to help you create your own memorable farewell address.

Understanding the Purpose of a Retirement Speech

A retirement speech serves several important functions:

- Celebration: It acknowledges the retiree's contributions and accomplishments throughout their career.
- Reflection: It provides an opportunity for the retiree to reflect on their journey, sharing memorable moments and lessons learned.

- Gratitude: It allows the retiree to express gratitude to colleagues, mentors, and family for their support and friendship over the years.
- Inspiration: It can inspire others by sharing insights and wisdom gained from a long career.

Structure of a Retirement Speech

When preparing a retirement speech, it's important to follow a clear structure to ensure your message resonates with the audience. Here's a suggested outline:

1. Introduction

- Begin with a warm welcome and a brief introduction.
- State the purpose of the speech and express your emotions about the occasion.
- Consider starting with a light-hearted anecdote or a famous quote related to retirement.

2. Acknowledgment of Achievements

- Highlight key contributions the retiree has made to the organization.
- Mention specific projects, roles, or responsibilities that demonstrate their impact.
- Share any awards or recognitions received throughout their career.

3. Personal Stories

- Include personal anecdotes that illustrate the retiree's character and work ethic.
- Invite colleagues to share brief stories or memories that highlight the retiree's influence on their lives.

4. Gratitude

- Express gratitude on behalf of the organization and colleagues.
- Acknowledge family members and friends who have supported the retiree.

5. Looking Ahead

- Discuss the retiree's future plans and aspirations post-retirement.
- Encourage them to pursue hobbies, travel, or spend time with family.

6. Conclusion

- End with a heartfelt farewell and best wishes for the future.
- Consider concluding with an inspiring quote about retirement or new beginnings.

Examples of Retirement Speeches

To provide further clarity, here are some examples of retirement speeches that you can draw inspiration from:

Example 1: The Grateful Colleague

"Good afternoon everyone,

As we gather here to celebrate [Retiree's Name]'s retirement, I am filled with a mix of joy and sadness. It's hard to imagine our workplace without [him/her/them]. Over the past [Number of Years] years, [he/she/they] has been more than just a colleague; [he/she/they] has been a mentor and a friend.

[Retiree's Name] has contributed immensely to our success. From leading the [specific project] that transformed our operations to mentoring countless employees who walked through these doors, [his/her/their] impact is felt far and wide. I remember the time [insert a personal anecdote that highlights the retiree's contributions or character].

As [he/she/they] embarks on this exciting new chapter, I want to extend a heartfelt thank you for your dedication and passion. We wish you all the best in your future adventures, [Retiree's Name]. You will always be a part of our family here."

Example 2: The Reflective Retiree

"Hello everyone,

Thank you for gathering here today to celebrate my retirement. It's hard to believe that I am standing before you, reflecting on [Number of Years] years in this incredible organization. When I first walked through these doors, I was filled with ambition and a little bit of fear. Little did I know, I would find a second home and a family here.

Throughout my career, I have had the privilege of working alongside some of the most talented individuals. Together, we faced challenges, celebrated victories, and created memories that I will cherish forever. [Insert a specific story about teamwork or a memorable event].

As I step into this new phase of life, I am excited about the opportunities that lie ahead. I plan to spend more time with my family, travel, and finally pursue my passion for [hobby/interest]. I want to thank each and every one of you for your support, friendship, and the countless memories we've shared. Remember, this is not goodbye; it's see you later!"

Example 3: The Humorist

"Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, I stand before you not just as a retiree but as a survivor of the corporate jungle! It's been a wild ride over the past [Number of Years]. I've learned a lot, and I've laughed even more – mostly at my own mistakes.

From the time I accidentally hit 'reply all' on an embarrassing email to the time I mistook the boss's birthday for a staff meeting, there have been moments I'd rather forget. But those moments taught me resilience and the importance of laughter in the workplace. [Insert a humorous anecdote that resonates with the audience].

As I retire, I leave you with one piece of advice: always keep a sense of humor, and never take yourself too seriously. I'm looking forward to this new adventure of sleeping in and playing golf! Thank you all for the wonderful years. I'll miss you, but I won't miss the Monday morning meetings!"

Tips for Crafting Your Retirement Speech

Here are a few essential tips to keep in mind when writing your retirement speech:

- Be Authentic: Speak from the heart and be true to your feelings.
- Keep It Concise: Aim for a speech length of around 5-10 minutes to keep your audience engaged.
- Practice: Rehearse your speech multiple times to build confidence and ensure smooth delivery.

- Know Your Audience: Tailor your content to the audience to make it relatable and engaging.
- Use Visual Aids: If appropriate, consider using slides or photos to enhance your message.

Conclusion

Delivering a retirement speech can be a meaningful way to honor a colleague's career and legacy. By using the examples provided and following the outlined structure and tips, you can create a heartfelt and memorable speech that resonates with the retiree and the audience. Remember, retirement is not an end but a new beginning filled with opportunities. Take this chance to celebrate the retiree's journey and wish them all the best for the future!
