

Hagar And Ishmael Worksheet

Bible Heroes

Hagar and Ishmael

A God of Second Chances

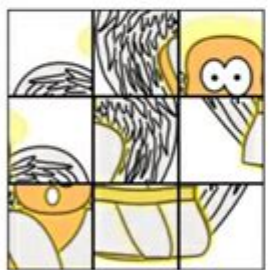

Everybody makes mistakes, sometimes little mistakes and sometimes big mistakes. Somebody tried to sketch Ishmael and Hagar - I wonder if you can spot the 10 mistakes?

What was the mistake Abraham and Sarah made in today's story??

Even though Abram and Sarah made a mistake, God still cared for Hagar and Ishmael, and God took care of them.

Complete the puzzles to work out the three things God did for them.

God sent an A _____

God showed them a W _____

Lift the boy up and take him by the hand, for I will make him into a _____

(Genesis 21:18)

God gave them a P _____

God recognised we make mistakes, he didn't get angry with Abram for his mistake, he forgave him and carried on with the big plan. Complete the silly faces below.

How do you think Abraham must have felt when he realised that he had made a mistake?

How did Abraham and Sarah feel after Sarah had baby Isaac?

How did Hagar and Ishmael feel after Sarah had baby Isaac?

How do you feel when you make a mistake?

Through Jesus we are forgiven for our mistakes, if we say to God we are sorry.

Take a moment to pray to God with a friend or your small group.
Thank God for his forgiveness and that he will love to give his children another chance to fulfil his plan.

Hagar and Ishmael worksheet is an educational tool that helps students explore the biblical story of Hagar and her son Ishmael, providing a deeper understanding of their significance in religious texts and their implications in social and historical contexts. This worksheet can be used in various educational settings, including Sunday schools, religious studies classes, or even in family discussions. It serves to spark discussions about themes such as faith, abandonment, resilience, and the complexity of human relationships.

The Biblical Background of Hagar and Ishmael

To fully grasp the importance of Hagar and Ishmael, one must start with their origins in the Bible. Hagar, an Egyptian servant, became the concubine of Abraham, a pivotal figure in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. The story is primarily found in the Book of Genesis, chapters 16 and 21.