Step-by-Step Guide to Drawing Tweety Bird

Now that you have your materials, let's start the drawing process! Follow these steps to create your own version of Tweety Bird.

Step 1: Draw the Basic Shapes

Begin by sketching the basic shapes that will form Tweety's body. These shapes serve as a foundation for your drawing.

1. Head: Draw a large oval shape for the head. This will be slightly wider at the top and narrower at the bottom.
2. Body: Below the head, draw a smaller oval for the body. It should be about half the size of the head.
3. Feet: At the bottom of the body, sketch two small, rounded shapes for the feet. They should be positioned slightly apart.

These basic shapes will help you maintain proportion as you refine your drawing.

Step 2: Add Facial Features

Next, it's time to bring Tweety's face to life.

1. Eyes: Draw two large, oval shapes for the eyes, making sure they are slightly tilted to give Tweety an expressive look. Inside each eye, add a smaller circle for the pupils.
2. Beak: Below the eyes, draw a small triangle shape for the beak. The base of the triangle should be wider and slightly curved.
3. Eyebrows: Add two curved lines above each eye to create Tweety's signature eyebrows, which give him a curious expression.

Step 3: Define the Body and Wings

Now that the face is complete, let's shape the body and the wings.

1. Outline the Body: Smooth out the lines of the body, connecting it to the head. Ensure the body is round and cartoonish.
2. Wings: On each side of the body, draw a curved line to create the wings. The wings should be small and rounded, positioned slightly above the middle of the body.

Step 4: Add Details and Refine Your Drawing

At this stage, you'll want to refine your drawing by adding details.

1. Feathers: Draw small, curved lines across the head and body to represent Tweety's feathers. This adds texture and character.

2. Feet: Define the feet by adding three small toes to each foot. The toes should be rounded and slightly spread apart.

3. Tail: At the back of the body, sketch a few short, curved lines to create the tail feathers.

Step 5: Inking Your Drawing

Once you're satisfied with your pencil sketch, it's time to ink your drawing.

1. Outline: Use a black fine-tip marker to carefully outline your pencil drawing. Be steady and take your time to ensure clean lines.

2. Erase Pencil Marks: After the ink has dried, gently erase the pencil marks to reveal a clean drawing.

Step 6: Coloring Tweety Bird

Now comes the fun part: adding color to your drawing!

1. Body: Use a bright yellow colored pencil or marker to fill in Tweety's body.

2. Beak and Feet: Color the beak and feet with an orange shade.

3. Eyes: For the eyes, leave the whites of the eyes uncolored, and use blue for the irises and black for the pupils.

Be sure to color evenly and keep your strokes consistent for a polished look.
