One of Head's fundamental beliefs was that clothing should flatter the wearer's body type. Here are some tips to identify and dress for your body type:

- Hourglass: Highlight your waist with fitted silhouettes and wrap dresses.
- Apple: Opt for A-line dresses and tailored blazers that draw attention to your legs.
- Pear: Use darker colors on the bottom and brighter hues on top to balance proportions.

- Rectangle: Create curves with peplum tops and layered clothing.

2. Choose the Right Colors

Colors play a significant role in how you are perceived. Edith Head often used color to convey character and emotion. Here's how to choose the right colors for your wardrobe:

- Understand Color Psychology: Different colors evoke different emotions. For example, blue is often associated with trust, while red conveys power and passion.
- Select Flattering Shades: Choose colors that complement your skin tone. Warm skin tones generally look good in earthy colors, while cool skin tones shine in jewel tones.
- Balance Brights and Neutrals: While bold colors can make a statement, balancing them with neutral shades can create a cohesive look.

3. Invest in Quality Over Quantity

Edith Head was known for her exquisite taste and preference for quality materials. Here are some tips for building a quality wardrobe:

- Choose Timeless Pieces: Invest in classic items like a well-tailored blazer, a little black dress, and high-quality shoes that never go out of style.

Accessories can make or break an outfit. Edith Head believed that the right accessories enhance your overall look. Here's how to accessorize effectively:

- Select Statement Pieces: A bold necklace or a striking handbag can elevate a simple outfit.
