Rule of Law Name: _____

Skit #1: Order and Security

Roles:
Friend #1
Friend #2
Robber
Officer

SUMMARY:
Two friends are attacked by a robber on the street. After searching for half an hour, they finally find a police officer. The police officer doesn't know how to help them. Even when the officer catches the robber, there is no jail where the officer can keep the robber, and the officer does not have the skills to figure out what is going on. The officer suggests the injured friend seek justice through a local council instead of in the court system.

Script:
FRIEND #1: You always want to go to the mall. Let's go see a movie this time.
FRIEND #2: But the movie will get out after dark, and it's too dangerous to be on the street after dark.
FRIEND #1: It's always dangerous on the street! I mean, even right now we could—Hey!
[Robber comes up.]
ROBBER: Give me all your money!
FRIEND #1: I don't have any money!
ROBBER: The watch! Give me the watch! [robber gets into a fight with Friend #1, and Friend #1 is badly injured]
FRIEND #1: Okay, okay! Take the watch. [Friend #1 removes his watch]
[Robber takes watch and runs away.]
FRIEND #2: Help! Police!
FRIEND #1: There aren't any police around here.
FRIEND #2: Let's try to find one. Can you walk?
FRIEND #1: I think so. [they walk]

FRIEND #1: We've been looking for half an hour, and there's no—
FRIEND #2: There! Help! Police!
[Officer comes over]
FRIEND #2: Officer! Help! Someone robbed and beat up my friend.
OFFICER: Do you know where he is?
FRIEND #1: No. He ran away.
OFFICER: Hm. Don't know what I can do, then.
FRIEND #2: Find him!
OFFICER: In this city? I wouldn't know where to start. And even if I found him, what would I do with him? We don't have anywhere to put him. The jail has been shut down for years.
FRIEND #2: You can't do anything?
FRIEND #1: Hey! There he is!
[Officer runs after Robber and catches him by the arm.]
OFFICER: This is the guy?
FRIEND #1: Yes! See? He has my watch!
OFFICER: [to robber] Is this your watch?
ROBBER: Yes. My mother gave it to me.
FRIEND #1: That's a lie!
OFFICER: Look. There's no way for me to know who's telling the truth. [lets robber go]
FRIEND #2: You're just going to let him go? He needs to be punished!
FRIEND #1: And he has my watch!
OFFICER: Take it up with the local council. They can figure out what to do.
FRIEND #1: I don't want to go to the council. I want to go to court.
OFFICER: The council is better for this kind of thing.
FRIEND #1: So you're not going to do anything?
OFFICER: [shrugs] Nothing I can do. You'll have to solve it yourself, or talk to the council.

iCivics Skit Script #1

iCivics Rule of Law Answer Key is a crucial resource for educators and students engaged in civics education. iCivics, founded by former U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, aims to promote civic knowledge among students through interactive online games and resources. One of the key concepts explored in iCivics is the rule of law, which serves as a foundational principle for democratic governance. This article will delve into the concept of the rule of law, its significance, and how the iCivics platform helps students understand this essential element of democracy.

Understanding the Rule of Law

The rule of law refers to the principle that all individuals and institutions, including the government, are accountable to the law. This concept is vital for ensuring justice, fairness, and equality within society. Below are some key components that define the rule of law:

- Equality Before the Law: All individuals, regardless of status or position, are subject to the same laws.
- Accountability: Government officials and institutions are held accountable for their actions under the law.
- Legal Certainty: Laws must be clear, publicized, and stable, allowing individuals to understand their rights and obligations.
- Protection of Human Rights: The rule of law must safeguard fundamental rights and freedoms of individuals.

- Judicial Independence: Courts must be impartial and free from external influence to effectively uphold the law.

Understanding these components is essential for students as they navigate the complexities of civic life and the legal system.

The Importance of the Rule of Law in Democracy

The rule of law is a cornerstone of democracy for several reasons:

1. Prevents Abuse of Power: By ensuring that no one is above the law, the rule of law acts as a check against tyranny and abuse of power.
2. Promotes Stability and Predictability: A society governed by the rule of law provides a stable environment where individuals can plan their lives, conduct business, and participate in civic activities.
3. Encourages Civic Participation: When citizens understand that their rights are protected under the law, they are more likely to engage in civic activities and advocacy.
4. Fosters Trust in Government: A transparent legal system builds trust in governmental institutions, encouraging citizens to comply with laws and regulations.

In the context of civic education, understanding the rule of law helps students appreciate the significance of their rights and responsibilities as citizens.

iCivics and the Rule of Law iCivics provides a dynamic platform for students to learn about civics and the rule of law through interactive games, lessons, and resources. The organization emphasizes experiential learning, allowing students to engage with civic concepts actively. Here are some notable features of iCivics related to the rule of law:

Interactive Games

One of the most effective ways iCivics teaches the rule of law is through its engaging games. These games simulate real-life scenarios where players must navigate legal challenges, understand the consequences of actions, and make decisions based on principles of justice. For example:

- "Do I Have a Right?": In this game, players run a law firm and must determine whether clients have legal rights based on the U.S. Constitution.

This game reinforces the importance of knowing one's rights and the role of the law in protecting those rights.

- "LawCraft": Players learn about the legislative process by crafting and passing laws. This game highlights the importance of the rule of law in creating fair and just legislation.

These games not only make learning enjoyable but also instill a deeper understanding of the rule of law and its application in everyday life.

Lesson Plans and Resources

In addition to games, iCivics provides comprehensive lesson plans that focus on the rule of law. These resources are designed for educators to facilitate discussions and activities related to legal principles. Some key components of iCivics lesson plans include:

- Case Studies: Students analyze real-world legal cases to understand how the rule of law is applied in various contexts.
- Discussion Questions: Thought-provoking questions encourage critical thinking about the implications of the rule of law in society.
- Role-Playing Activities: Students can participate in mock trials or debates to experience the legal process firsthand.

These resources help students connect theoretical concepts to practical applications, enhancing their understanding of the rule of law.
