WRITE A NEWS STORY:

There are three men who were arrested by the Philippine National Police (PNP) last August 18, 2016.

The first man who was arrested was Mr. Anton Duran. He is 27 years old. He is from Tondo, Manila. He is a motorcycle shop owner. He has two daughters and they are currently living in Cuyapo, Nueva Ecija. His wife is named Mary Duran, 23 years old and is living with Anton in Cuyapo.

The second man who was arrested has a name of Mr. Glen Cabote. He is 26 years old. He is from Cuyapo, Nueva Ecija. He is a bakery owner and the name of his bakery is "Baker King." He is single and is currently living with his mother named Ana Cabote in Cuyapo, Nueva Ecija. Glen loves to play basketball and he is a fan of the Golden State Warriors.

The third man who was arrested is Mr. Ephraim Gestupa. He is also 27 years old. He is currently living from Cuyapo, Nueva Ecija. He is jobless. He is the only son and child of the Mayor of San Manuel, Tarlac. He is currently living in Cuyapo, Nueva Ecija with his girlfriend Joanna Mance. Joanna Mance is 18 years old.

They were arrested during a surprise raid of a bar in Cuyapo, Nueva Ecija at exactly 11:54 PM. They were in the bar when the police came in to check the bar. The bar's name is "Happy Hour Bar."

Ronald "Bato" Dela Rosa, the Police Chief of the Philippine National Police, talked in an interview and said, "Nag-asbutan si Anton Duran at Glen Cabote ng mga bag sa harap ni Ephraim Gestupa noong pumasok kami. Si Anton Duran ay matagal pa naming sinu-surveillance at tamang yung kutob namin at sakto ang raid namin dito dahil may transaksyon silang shabu."

Police Officer 1 Harvey Aquino, the police investigator of the incident, talked in an interview and said, "May natagpuan na 5 kilo ng shabu at 1 kilo ng heroine doon sa mga bag na inasbot ni Anton Duran kay Glen Cabote. Si Ephraim Gestupa yung nagbitalang pera na inasbot kay Anton Duran noong nakapasok na kami. Wala namang nasaktan o namatay dahil hindi lumaban yung tatlo o kahit sino man. Medyo lasing at naka-take ng shabu yung tatlo kaya hindi makausap ng maayos."

Mr. Anton Duran and Mr. Glen Cabote are both hesitant to speak while Mr. Ephraim Gestupa said, "Saktong nasara lang po ako at wala akong kinalaman. Mali ang bintang nila sa akin. Tatawagan ko ang tatay ko, si Mayor Walter Gestupa ng San Manuel, Tarlac. Lagot kayo sa akin lhat."

The police officers were trying to contact the family members of the suspect but no one is answering calls.

The three arrested men are now behind bars in the Cuyapo City Jail while waiting for their families and lawyers. The Philippine National Police filed a case of "Illegal possession of prohibited drugs" against the three men.

The raid was part of the "OPLAN GALUGAD SA GABI" of the Philippine National Police.

News writing practice exercises are essential for budding journalists who want to hone their skills and learn the intricacies of crafting clear, concise, and engaging news articles. In the fast-paced world of journalism, the ability to deliver accurate information quickly and effectively is crucial. This article will explore various exercises that can help improve your news writing skills, understand the fundamental components of news stories, and develop a sharp journalistic instinct.

Understanding the Basics of News Writing

Before diving into practice exercises, it is important to grasp the foundational elements of news writing. News articles typically follow the inverted pyramid structure, where the most critical information appears at the beginning, followed by supporting details and background information.

The 5 W's and H

A good news story answers the fundamental questions known as the 5 W's and H:

1. Who is involved?
2. What happened?
3. Where did it take place?
4. When did it occur?
5. Why did it happen?
6. How did it unfold?

Understanding these elements will guide your writing and ensure you cover all necessary aspects of the story.

Writing Style and Voice

News writing is characterized by its straightforward and objective tone. Writers should aim to present facts without inserting personal opinions or biases. Familiarity with Associated Press (AP) style can also enhance clarity and professionalism in your writing.

Practice Exercises for News Writing

The following exercises are designed to strengthen your news writing skills, encouraging practice and reflection.

1. Summarization Exercises

Choose a news article from a reputable source and summarize it in 100-150 words. Focus on capturing the essence of the story while adhering to the inverted pyramid structure.

- Goals:
- Identify key components of the article.
- Practice condensing information without losing important details.

2. Headline Writing

Read several articles and identify their headlines. Then, write your own headlines for the same articles, aiming for clarity and engagement.

- Tips:
- Use strong verbs.
- Keep it concise (usually under 10 words).
- Aim to evoke curiosity while maintaining accuracy.

3. The 5 W's and H Exercise

Select a current event and write down the answers to the 5 W's and H. Then, use these answers to draft a lead paragraph.

- Goals:
- Practice gathering essential information quickly.
- Develop the ability to write concise lead paragraphs.

4. Quote Integration Challenge

Choose a news story that includes quotes from individuals involved in the event. Rewrite the story, integrating at least three different quotes while maintaining coherence and flow.

- Objectives:
- Understand the importance of direct quotes in news writing.
- Practice seamless integration of quotes into your narratives.

5. Reporting on a Local Event

Attend a local event, such as a town hall meeting or community festival. Take notes and write a news article, focusing on the key aspects of the event, including who attended, what was discussed, and any outcomes.

- Considerations:
- Pay attention to the tone and atmosphere of the event.
- Ensure your article paints a complete picture for readers who were not present.

Advanced Exercises

Once you feel comfortable with the basics, consider the following advanced exercises to further enhance your skills.

1. Developing a News Story from Scratch

Identify a topic of interest and conduct interviews with individuals who can provide insight. After gathering your information, write a comprehensive news article.

- Focus Areas:
- Ensure that your piece answers the 5 W's and H.
- Present a balanced perspective on the issue discussed.

2. Fact-Checking and Verification

Select a news story and conduct a fact-check. Check the credibility of the sources cited and determine if the information presented is accurate.

- Steps:
- Identify claims made in the article.
- Use reliable resources to verify facts.
- Rewrite the article highlighting any inaccuracies found.

3. Comparative Analysis

Choose two articles covering the same event from different news outlets. Analyze the differences in writing style, perspective, and focus.

- Goals:
- Understand how the same event can be portrayed differently.
- Recognize the importance of source selection and bias in journalism.

Building a Routine

To truly excel in news writing, establish a consistent routine that incorporates various exercises. Here's a suggested weekly plan:

- Monday: Summarization exercise – Read and summarize two articles.
- Tuesday: Headline writing – Write headlines for three different stories.
- Wednesday: Attend a local event and write an article.
- Thursday: Quote integration challenge – Take a story and rewrite it with quotes.
- Friday: Fact-check an article from a news source.
- Saturday: Comparative analysis of articles covering the same event.
- Sunday: Reflect on the week's practice, noting areas for improvement.

Feedback and Improvement

Receiving feedback is crucial for growth in news writing. Consider these approaches:

- Peer Review: Exchange articles with fellow aspiring journalists and provide constructive criticism.
- Mentorship: Seek a mentor in the field who can offer advice and insights.
- Online Communities: Join online forums or social media groups dedicated to journalism and news writing for additional support.

Conclusion

Engaging in news writing practice exercises is an effective way to develop your skills as a journalist. By mastering the basics, undertaking various writing exercises, and continuously seeking feedback, you can refine your craft and become a proficient news writer. Remember, the key to effective journalism lies in clarity, accuracy, and the ability to engage your audience with compelling storytelling. As you practice, embrace each opportunity to learn and grow, and soon you will find your voice in the world of news writing.
