- All-or-Nothing Thinking: Viewing situations in black-and-white terms, with no middle ground.
- Overgeneralization: Making broad conclusions based on a single incident.
- Catastrophizing: Expecting the worst possible outcome in every situation.
- Personalization: Blaming oneself for events outside of one's control.
- Disqualifying the Positive: Ignoring or downplaying positive experiences or feedback.

By understanding these patterns, individuals can begin to address and reshape their thinking.

- What is a more balanced thought?
- How can I view this situation differently?

- What would I tell a friend in this situation?
