Understanding the Prayer of Jabez

The Prayer of Jabez is derived from a brief mention in 1 Chronicles 4:9-10, where Jabez, a descendant of Judah, is described as a man who sought blessings and protection from God. His prayer is simple yet powerful, asking God to enlarge his territory, be with him, and keep him from harm. This passage emphasizes the importance of seeking God's favor and guidance in one's life.

Scriptural Origin

The Prayer of Jabez is found in the following verses:

1. 1 Chronicles 4:9 (NIV): "Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. His mother had named him Jabez, saying, 'I gave birth to him in pain.'"
2. 1 Chronicles 4:10 (NIV): "Jabez cried out to the God of Israel, 'Oh, that you would bless me and enlarge my territory! Let your hand be with me, and keep me from harm so that I will be free from pain.' And God granted his request."
