Chapter 1

- Narrator was 12 (very religious)
- Setting = 1941
- Moche the Beadle (poor but lived humbly) is the narrator's spiritual adviser.
- Simile – "Tears like drops of wax."
- Father is not emotional—cares more for others than own family
- Moche the Beadle is expelled because he's a foreigner. The community soon forgets the deportees.
- The Jews do not believe Moche's story (deportees being slaughtered/his escape).
- At first, they think the German soldiers are reassuring and polite.
- The first arrest was after Passover. Three decrees (orders) were issued:
  - Jews aren't allowed to leave house.
  - Jews have to hand over all valuables.
  - Jews must wear yellow star.

SparkNotes on Night by Elie Wiesel provide a comprehensive analysis of one of the most poignant memoirs of the Holocaust. Elie Wiesel's "Night" recounts his harrowing experiences in Nazi concentration camps during World War II. This article will delve into the key themes, character analyses, important quotes, and a summary of the narrative, offering a detailed guide for those seeking to understand this crucial work.

Summary of "Night"

Elie Wiesel's "Night" is a deeply personal account of his survival during the Holocaust. The narrative begins in Wiesel's hometown of Sighet, Transylvania, where he grows up in a Jewish community. The story unfolds as the Nazi regime begins to exert control over the area, ultimately leading to the deportation of the Jewish population.

1. Life in Sighet: Initially, the Jewish community is in denial about the impending danger, despite warnings from Moshe the Beadle, who survives an early massacre.
2. Deportation: In 1944, the Jews of Sighet are forced into ghettos and later deported to Auschwitz, a notorious concentration camp.
3. Auschwitz and Birkenau: Upon arrival, Elie and his father are separated from his mother and sisters. They endure brutal treatment, starvation, and dehumanization.
4. Survival and Loss: The narrative details the struggle for survival, the loss of faith, and the profound bond between Elie and his father.
5. Death March: As the camps are liberated, the prisoners are forced on a death march.
