This enigmatic character offers him an escape from his bleak reality, presenting a world where he can reclaim joy, adventure, and a sense of belonging.

However, this new world is not the idyllic paradise Nick imagines. The Child Thief, who is a reimagined version of Peter Pan, leads children to a place called Avalon, a dark, enchanted land filled with goblins, fairies, and other fantastical creatures. But Avalon is not without its dangers, as the Child Thief has a sinister agenda that ultimately puts Nick and the other children in peril.
