

The Great Gatsby Study Guide Answers

The Great Gatsby

Chapter One

1. How does Nick describe himself at the beginning of the book?
He is tolerant and doesn't make snap judgments about people. People therefore tend to confide in him. He is also restless, seeking something he cannot name.
2. How does Nick describe Tom Buchanan?
Tom is aggressive, arrogant, pugnacious, and extremely wealthy.
3. Who is Jordan Baker?
A friend of Daisy.
4. What does Nick find appealing about her?
She is aloof and self-sufficient.
5. Describe the ambiguity in Nick's initial descriptions of Gatsby.
Nick says that Gatsby represented "everything for which I have an unaffected scorn," yet he also says that "There was something gorgeous about him," and that he "turned out all right."
6. How does the tone of Nick's description of Tom reveal Nick's feelings about Tom?
He describes Tom's manner as "supercilious," his body as "cruel," and his voice as gruff and husky, which "added to the impression of fractiousness he conveyed." These physical descriptions indicate the flaws that Nick sees in Tom's character.
7. How would you describe Daisy's state of mind during dinner?
Daisy seems flighty and upset.
8. What does she say and do that help reveal her inner conflicts?
She confesses to Nick that she has become cynical and overly sophisticated and implies that she is deeply unsatisfied with her marriage.
9. Nick thinks that, given the state of their marriage, Daisy should leave Tom, but it is clear to him that she has no intention of doing so. What indication is there that Tom and Daisy are closely linked despite their marital difficulties?
The most significant link between Tom and Daisy is implied after Daisy's outburst to Nick when she smirks "as if she had asserted her membership in a rather distinguished secret society to which she and Tom belonged."
10. What indications are there that the green light will have a powerful emotional significance to Gatsby?
Gatsby's gesture and his trembling help to highlight the significance of the green light.

Each section will provide insights and answers that can help enhance comprehension and facilitate discussion.

Character Analysis

Understanding the characters in The Great Gatsby is crucial to grasping the novel's themes and messages. Here are some of the key figures:

1. Jay Gatsby

- Background: Originally named James Gatz, Gatsby is a self-made millionaire who throws extravagant parties in hopes of rekindling his romance with Daisy Buchanan.
- Personality Traits: Idealistic, hopeful, and enigmatic, Gatsby is driven by his love for Daisy and his desire to attain the American Dream.
- Significance: Gatsby represents the pursuit of happiness and the lengths one will go to for love, illustrating the complexities of the American Dream.

2. Daisy Buchanan

- Background: Daisy is the beautiful cousin of Nick Carraway and the object of Gatsby's obsession. She is married to Tom Buchanan.
- Personality Traits: Charming, shallow, and conflicted, Daisy embodies the allure and emptiness of wealth.
- Significance: Her character highlights the theme of disillusionment with the American Dream and the societal pressures faced by women in the 1920s.

3. Tom Buchanan

- Background: Tom is Daisy's wealthy and aggressive husband, representing the old money class.
- Personality Traits: Arrogant, racist, and domineering, Tom is often portrayed as the antagonist in the novel.
- Significance: Tom's character serves as a critique of the moral decay hidden beneath the lavish surface of the upper class.

4. Nick Carraway

- Background: The novel's narrator, Nick, is a Yale graduate and a World War I veteran who moves to West Egg to work in the bond business.
- Personality Traits: Observant, reflective, and morally conscious, Nick serves as a bridge between the reader and the other characters.
- Significance: Through Nick's perspective, readers gain insight into the world of Gatsby and the social dynamics of the time.

5. Jordan Baker

- Background: A professional golfer and friend of Daisy, Jordan becomes romantically involved with Nick.
- Personality Traits: Cynical, glamorous, and somewhat dishonest, Jordan represents the new woman of the 1920s.
- Significance: Her character reflects the changing roles of women and the moral ambiguity present in society.

Themes

The Great Gatsby explores several themes that are central to understanding its critique of American society.

1. The American Dream

- Definition: The American Dream is the belief that anyone can achieve success and prosperity through hard work.
- Gatsby's Dream: Gatsby embodies the American Dream by rising from humble beginnings to great wealth. However, his dream is ultimately unattainable, illustrating the idea that the dream is a flawed construct.
- Disillusionment: The novel poses questions about the validity of the American Dream, suggesting that it often leads to disillusionment and despair.

2. Class and Social Stratification

- Old Money vs. New Money: The novel contrasts Gatsby's newly acquired wealth with the established elite represented by Tom and Daisy Buchanan.
- Social Mobility: Gatsby's failure to penetrate the upper class despite his wealth emphasizes the rigid class structures of the time.
- Corruption of Wealth: Fitzgerald critiques the moral decay associated with wealth, highlighting that financial success does not equate to happiness or fulfillment.

3. Love and Relationships

- Idealized Love: Gatsby's love for Daisy is portrayed as idealistic and obsessive, leading to tragic consequences.
- Superficial Relationships: The relationships in the novel often lack depth, revealing the emptiness that accompanies a life focused solely on materialism.
- Consequences of Infidelity: The affairs and betrayals among characters underline the instability and moral ambiguity of their relationships.

Symbols

The Great Gatsby is rich with symbolism that enhances its themes and messages.

1. The Green Light

- Significance: The green light at the end of Daisy's dock symbolizes Gatsby's unattainable dreams and hopes for the future.
- Interpretation: It represents not only Gatsby's desire for Daisy but also the broader theme of the elusive American Dream.

2. The Valley of Ashes

- Description: The desolate area between West Egg and New York City represents the moral and social decay resulting from the uninhibited pursuit of wealth.
- Symbolism: It serves as a stark contrast to the opulence of the Eggs and highlights the consequences of the American Dream on society's underclass.

3. The Eyes of Dr. T.J. Eckleburg

- Description: The billboard featuring a pair of giant, disembodied eyes is often interpreted as the eyes of God watching over the characters.
- Interpretation: It symbolizes the loss of spiritual values in America and the moral decay that accompanies the pursuit of wealth.

Significant Quotes

Quotations from The Great Gatsby encapsulate its themes and character motivations. Here are some noteworthy lines:

1. "In my younger and more vulnerable days my father gave me some advice that I've been turning over in my mind ever since."
 - This quote sets the reflective tone of Nick's narration and establishes his role as a moral compass.
2. "Gatsby believed in the green light, the orgastic future that year by year recedes before us."
 - This line captures Gatsby's hope and the elusive nature of the American Dream.
3. "I hope she'll be a fool—that's the best thing a girl can be in this world, a beautiful little fool."
 - Daisy's statement reflects her cynicism about the role of women and the societal expectations of the time.
4. "So we beat on, boats against the current, borne back ceaselessly into the past."
 - The novel's closing line signifies the struggle against time and the inevitability of the past, underscoring the futility of Gatsby's dream.

Conclusion

In summary, The Great Gatsby Study Guide Answers provide a comprehensive analysis of the novel's characters, themes, symbols, and significant quotes.
