Methods of Using Magickal Herbs

Here are several ways to incorporate herbs into your spiritual practices:

1. Herbal Baths
 - Create a cleansing bath by adding herbs to warm water. Common choices include lavender for relaxation or rosemary for purification.
2. Herbal Sachets
 - Fill small fabric bags with your chosen herbs to create sachets. These can be placed under pillows or carried as amulets for protection or to attract specific energies.
3. Incense and Oils
 - Make your own incense by grinding herbs and mixing them with a binding agent. Alternatively, infuse oils with herbs to use in anointing candles or for magical workings.

4. Teas and Infusions

- Brew herbal teas to connect with the energy of the plants while meditating or setting intentions. Chamomile, for instance, can help calm the mind.

5. Spell Work

Creating Your Own Magickal Garden

Growing your own herbs allows you to cultivate a personal connection with the plants you use in your practice.

Steps to Start Your Magickal Herb Garden

1. Select Your Location

- Choose a spot that receives adequate sunlight and has good drainage. Herbs typically thrive in well-drained soil with plenty of sun.
