Setting the Stage: The Rise of the Fiend

The tale of the last apprentice attack begins long before the fateful night. The fiend, a malevolent entity born from the darkest corners of magic, had been gathering strength for decades. Its influence spread insidiously through the realm, preying on the fears and insecurities of both novice and experienced magic users.

The Origins of the Fiend

2. Manipulation of the Weak: With a talent for manipulation, the fiend drew in vulnerable apprentices, promising them power in exchange for their loyalty. Many fell into its trap, becoming unwitting agents of chaos.
3. Gathering Followers: Over time, a cult-like following formed around the fiend, consisting of disillusioned magic users who sought revenge against the established order.

3. The Mentor's Warning: Experienced mentors sensed the shift in the atmosphere and warned their apprentices to stay alert. They suspected that the fiend was preparing to strike.

The Attack Unfolds

As midnight approached, the tranquility of the night shattered.
