User Interface Overview

Understanding the user interface is crucial for efficient use of Trial Director 360:

- Main Toolbar: Provides access to essential functions such as importing evidence, creating presentations, and modifying settings.
- Evidence Panel: Displays the imported evidence, organized by categories.
- Presentation Window: The area where evidence is displayed during trials.
- Notes Section: Allows users to take notes or add comments related to specific pieces of evidence.

Importing and Organizing Evidence

A significant advantage of Trial Director 360 is its robust evidence management capabilities.

Importing Evidence

1. File Types Supported:

- Documents (PDF, Word)
- Images (JPEG, PNG, TIFF)
- Videos (MP4, AVI)
- Audio files (WAV, MP3)

2. Import Process:

- Click on the "Import Evidence" button in the main toolbar.
- Select the files you wish to import from your computer.
- Assign tags or categories to each piece of evidence for easy retrieval.

Organizing Evidence

- Folders and Subfolders: Create a logical structure by using folders and subfolders to categorize evidence, such as by witness, issue, or type of evidence.
- Tags: Use tags to make searching for specific evidence easier. For example, tag documents as "expert witness," "exhibits," or "depositions."
- Searching for Evidence: Utilize the search function to quickly find specific pieces of evidence based on keywords or tags.

Presentation Features

Trial Director 360 excels in providing tools for effective courtroom presentations.

Creating Presentations

1. Selecting Evidence: Choose the pieces of evidence you want to include in your presentation.
2. Arranging Evidence: Drag and drop evidence into the presentation window in the order you wish to present them.
3. Adding Annotations: Utilize annotation tools to highlight key points or add notes directly on evidence.

During the Trial

- Real-Time Presentation: Present evidence seamlessly using the presentation window. Use the spotlight tool to focus on specific areas of the evidence during your presentation.
- Quick Access: Use keyboard shortcuts to quickly switch between pieces of evidence, making it easier to adapt to the flow of the trial.

Collaboration and Remote Access

In today's legal environment, collaboration is vital. Trial Director 360 supports teamwork through its cloud capabilities.

Working with Teams

- Sharing Cases: Share case files with team members, enabling collaborative notes and updates.
- Real-Time Updates: Team members can make changes in real time, ensuring everyone is on the same page before and during trials.

Remote Access Benefits

- Convenience: Access your case files from any location, allowing for flexibility in preparation.
