Ingredients

To serve about four people, you will need the following:

- 1 tablespoon of vegetable oil or peanut oil
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 3 cloves of garlic, minced
- 1 inch piece of ginger, minced
- 2 medium sweet potatoes, diced
- 1 bell pepper, chopped (any color)
- 1 can (14 oz) of diced tomatoes
- 1 cup of vegetable broth
- 1 cup of natural peanut butter (smooth or chunky)
- 2 cups of fresh spinach (or kale)
- 1 teaspoon of ground cumin
- 1 teaspoon of ground coriander
- 1 teaspoon of cayenne pepper (adjust to taste)
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Chopped peanuts and cilantro for garnish (optional)

Instructions

1. Sauté the Aromatics: In a large pot, heat the vegetable oil over medium heat. Add the chopped onion and sauté until translucent (about 5 minutes). Add the garlic and ginger, cooking for an additional 1-2 minutes until fragrant.
2. Add Vegetables: Stir in the diced sweet potatoes and bell pepper. Cook for about 5 minutes, allowing the vegetables to soften slightly.
3. Incorporate Tomatoes and Broth: Pour in the diced tomatoes with their juices and the vegetable broth. Stir well to combine.

5. Season the Stew: Sprinkle in the ground cumin, coriander, cayenne pepper, salt, and pepper. Stir to combine all the spices evenly.
6. Simmer: Bring the stew to a simmer, then reduce the heat to low. Cover the pot and let it cook for about 20-25 minutes, or until the sweet potatoes are tender.
7. Add Greens: Once the sweet potatoes are cooked, stir in the fresh spinach or kale, allowing it to wilt for a couple of minutes.

8. Taste and Adjust: Taste the stew and adjust the seasoning if necessary. You may want to add more salt, pepper, or cayenne for additional heat.

9. Serve: Ladle the stew into bowls and garnish with chopped peanuts and cilantro if desired. Serve hot with rice, quinoa, or crusty bread.
